College Serves 1114 Students in Extension Work

Enrollment for Last Year in This Department Shows Increase 178 Students—51 Courses Have Been Organized So Far This Year.

Eleven hundred and fourteen individual students were served by the extension department of the College during the past school year according to the annual report of Mr. Cooper, director. This is an increase of 178 students over last year, when the enrollment for the department was 936, and an increase of 423 students over the year before, when the enrollment was 513.

Mr. Cooper's report shows that 73 extension classes were conducted during the past year and that 879 students were enrolled in them. Last year there were 716 students enrolled in 54 extension classes, the increase the past year being 19 classes and 163 students.

In correspondence work the department served 235 students the past year, an increase of fifteen students over the preceding year.

The extension department is busy now organizing extension courses over the district for the coming year. Fifty-one courses have been organized so far this year. With several others in the process of organization, indications point to at least as large enrollment in this department as last year.

Mr. Cooper, director of the department, has been granted a year's leave of absence to attend Harvard. Mr. Sealeman will be acting director of the department in Mr. Cooper's absence.

The following are the extension courses that have been organized so far this year together with the instructor's names, wherever the instructor has been definitely supplied:

Oriskany—two courses in sociology, Mr. Irion of Kansas City; Sheridan—two courses in sociology, Mr. Wallin; Savannah—Tennysen, Miss Painter and Tests and measurements, Mr. Loomis; Plattsburg—two courses in geography, Mr. Causfield; Trenton—health and play, Miss Fox.

St. Joseph—The novel, Miss Painter; educational psychology, Mr. Loomis; English composition, Miss Lowery; principles of teaching, Miss Shepherd.

Bogard—hygiene, Mr. De Lameret of St. Joseph; Kingston—history of Missouri, government and politics, Mr. Irion; Ridgeway—American history and history of education, Dr. Keller; Rock Port—vitalized agriculture, Mr. Stanfield; health and play, Miss Manley; Gallatin—astronomy and methods in arithmetic, Miss Holwig; Richmond—rural sociology and world history, Mr. Irion.

Osborn—citizenship and European history, Mr. Foster; Craig—health and education and personal hygiene, Mr. Phillips; King City—history of Missouri and American history, Miss Corwin; Grant City—four courses in American history, Mr. Stone of St. Joseph; Guilford—citizenship and American history, Mr. Stone or Miss Corwin; Princeton—vitalized agriculture, and horticulture, Mr. Stanfield.

Trenton—vitalized agriculture, Mr. Stanfield; Oregon—vitalized agriculture, Mr. Stanfield; Maryville, tests and measurements, and educational psychology, Mr. Loomis; vitalized agriculture, Mr. Stanfield; Hopkins—course and instructor undecided; Plattsburg—history of Missouri and American history, Miss Corwin; St. Joseph—millinery, Miss Anthony; Fairfax—geography, Mr. Causfield; Barnard—American history, two courses, Mr. Cook.

Mildred Miller, formerly of the education department of S. T. C., has been teaching this summer at the Adams Normal School.

Don't Get Excited But Pass Out Quietly if You Hear Trumpet Peal

Let me ask you something deadly secret. Did you ever hear of walk-out day? You say you never did? Well, then you've missed a great thing in life. Did you ever anticipate having a good dinner in the woods, lots of games, lots of swings, and lots of music for not so very much money? This is what walk-out day means.

Every fall the students of S. T. C. choose a particular day to have an all day picnic. The faculty, to be sure, goes along to see that no student spends the day studying.

Did you ask when it was going to

H. S. Students Meet

Robert Ruhl has been elected editor-in-chief of a school paper to be edited by the high school students of the College. At their meeting last week Bill Lamkin and Milan Shell were elected yell leaders for the term. A pep meeting was held and both of the yell leaders gave a short talk.

Miss Dykes to King City

Miss Dykes spent the week end at home in King City. She stopped at Stauber's where she organized two classes in extension.

Football Must Train For Life In College Days

—Rev. J. A. Cooper.

Former Faculty Member Only Justification for Gridiron Game, In Assembly Talk—Business of This Institution To Make Citizens.

"As long as men love a good fight, as long as they love competitive contests, football will be played."

So declared the Rev. Joseph A. Cooper, a former S. T. C. faculty member and for the past year a chautauqua lecturer, in a forceful address given at assembly last Wednesday.

"But I want to remind you that this is not the real justification for football being played in college," continued Mr. Cooper. "Football commands a place in college life, not because man loves a good fight, but because football is real preparation for a bigger game—the game of life. Football preparation is life preparation."

"I believe that we are coming to a period of reaction in college athletics. We must convince our taxpayers who support our institutions that football is a real preparation for life. It develops loyalty to the institution, loyalty to the team, and loyalty to the coach. If it is not right to cheat in the classroom or in the business world it is not right to do so in football."

In speaking of the taxpayers, who support such institutions as ours, Mr. Cooper declared they were paying their money because they were interested in developing citizens who would be trained to accept public and civic responsibilities. It is pretty easy, he said, for us to accept the privileges of such institutions as ours without accepting its obligations and responsibilities.

"The whole business of this institution," concluded Mr. Cooper, "is to prepare for the great game men everywhere in the world play—the great game of life."

At Wednesday's assembly a new custom was established whereby all in assembly would stand while the seniors marched from the room, they to be followed by the juniors, then sophomores and freshmen.

This coming Wednesday the assembly program will be given by members of the Conservatory of Music faculty and the public is invited to attend.

College Chorus Has 300 Voices This Year

The organization of the chorus has been completed. There are approximately three hundred members. The students are entering into the work enthusiastically. The practice is being concentrated upon the oratorio, Handel's "Messiah."

Mr. Gardner plans to have two of the great choruses, "His Yoke is Easy and His Burden is Light" and "The Hallelujah Chorus," sung at the teachers' meeting in October. More definite plans will be announced later.

Blomfield-Cook Ticket Wins By Small Majority

New Student President Elected by 78 Majority After Thrilling Election—Cook's Majority, Only 18—Both Candidates Are Well-Qualified.

Ray "Abie"

Blomfield's election as student president was probably the most exciting political event of the year, if measured by real campaigning and enthusiasm. The campaign for Roberta Cook, the new vice-president and running mate of Blomfield, was equally as spirited. Clarence Rising trailed Blomfield by a bare seventy-eight votes and a scant eighteen votes made Roberta Cook vice-president over Dorothy England.

Both candidates had well organized forces supporting them in the race, which naturally resulted in a hotly contested campaign preceding the election of last Wednesday.

Blomfield's past record in S. T. C. has proved him worthy of the office of student president. He was assistant business manager of the 1925 Tower, treasurer of the junior class, junior representative of the Council, was president of the "M" Club and a member of the Bearcat basketball team, of which he was captain during the season of 1924-25, and has been a member of the football squad.

Roberta Cook has proved herself equally as worthy of office and public trust. She is a member of the Championship Kitten basketball team, belongs to the W. A. A., the Y. W. C. A., and the Eureka Literary Society and is a good all-around student.

One of the big features of display of pep and enthusiasm in the campaigning for the successful candidate was the big serenade held on the evening preceding the election. A full orchestra was arranged on a truck which was loaded to the last inch with real rosters and singers. The group paraded the streets, singing their political songs and speaking and cheering for their candidates. Harold "Bun" O'Banion, with his campaign speeches, proved himself a real orator. An abundance of attractive advertising was used by both parties.

Ray Blomfield succeeds Clarence Rising, acting president.

The election board, composed of members of the citizenship classes, announced the vote as follows:

Blomfield for president.....320
Rising for president.....242
Roberta Cook for vice-president 289
Dorothy England for vice-president.....271

A total of 562 votes were cast, the largest ever polled at any election. But even at that, there were more than a hundred students who failed to exercise their voting privilege.

Letter From Enlah Pearce

In a letter to Dean Barnard, Enlah Pearce tells of her work as Dean of Women in Heddling College, Abingdon, Illinois. Miss Pearce is in full charge of the dormitory besides teaching Educational Psychology and attending to the various duties of a dean.

Blomfield Resigns As President Of M Club

A special meeting of the "M" Club was held Tuesday night, September 22, to hear the report of a committee appointed at the last meeting for the purpose of selecting the furniture to be placed in the "M" Club room at the new gym. It was voted by the club to accept the furniture selected by the committee and the work of furnishing the room in the gym will be done by members of the club this week.

Other business matters were discussed, among which was the resignation of President Blomfield, which was placed before the Club and accepted.

Hallie Rhodes, a former student, visited friends in Maryville Sunday. She is teaching in the Irish Grove School, Fairfax, Missouri.

Miss Bowman Back. Miss Bowman, who has been ill for the past two weeks, was able to meet her classes Friday.

Ora Mae Condon Fashion Queen. Ora Mae Condon was chosen Fashion Queen at a style show given at Chillicothe High School Thursday evening. Miss Condon is a member of the faculty there and is a former student of the College, graduating in the spring class of '25.

Pledges Delta Gamma.

Miss Catherine Remus, who is attending Drake University at Des Moines, Iowa, has been pledged to the Delta Gamma Sorority. Miss Remus is a former student of S. T. C.

Peru and Tarks Powerful Rivals Say Our Mentors

Coaches Lawrence and Jones See Tarkio Beat Peru Friday, 6 to 0—Heavy Bobcat Team Comes Here Next Week for Annual Bearcat Fray—Tark Team Is Turkey Day.

Coaches Lawrence and Jones, accompanied by several of the football squad, journeyed to Peru, Nebraska last Friday to watch Peru play another Bearcat opponent. The Bearcats meet Peru on the local gridiron on October 9th and play with Tarkio on Thanksgiving Day. In the struggle at Peru Friday, Tarkio came away with the long end of the score, 6 to 0.

The coaches in commenting on the game gave credit to Tarkio for having a good defensive team, but also mention that the score did not tell the story of the game. Peru lost numerous chances to score due to fumbles and costly penalties, while Tarkio's score came on a blocked kick recovered on the Peru one foot line. At no other time did Tarkio threaten the Peru goal line, while the Bobcats consistently out-gained their opponents and were a constant threat. It was just another game in which the cost of penalties and fumbles was the margin of victory.

The forward wall of the Peru team appeared very strong having both size and speed. All of the team will approach close to 200 pounds and the big red-headed fullback of former years is still with them. Peru was well versed in end runs and line plays and no doubt would have scored had it not been for the tendency to fumble and for the costly penalties. Tarkio's score came as the result of blocked punt late in the last quarter and was followed by a determined rush on the part of the Peru team which carried them from their own twenty yard line to the Tarkio's goal, where bad generalship allowed the game to end with the ball in possession of Peru.

In commenting on the game Coach Jones said, "If we are to win from Peru we must make up in charge and speed the advantage in that will be theirs." Coach Lawrence said, "They are big, awful big and they are fast and powerful. They also have strength and I am convinced that condition will play a large part in the struggle. The team that is in the best condition will win. We must learn to charge faster and spike harder for they will be hard to move on any play."

115 Students Join The Dramatics Club

The Dramatics Club, under the supervision of Miss Dow and Miss McClanahan, will meet on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month in the college auditorium at 7:30.

At the first meeting September 22, 115 students enrolled. Miss Dow explained that the club would be divided into groups and at each meeting two one-act plays would be given by two of the groups. Once a term, the best plays will be given at assembly.

One and one-fourth hours activity credit will be given in the Dramatic Club unless there are more than three absences. Three tardies count as one absence.

Lauris Martin Eek, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Lauris M. Eek, of Maryville announce the birth of a son at St. Francis Hospital Wednesday evening, September 23. Mrs. Eek was formerly of the college faculty, being connected with the art department.

Informal Dance Thursday. Dean Barnard is planning an informal dance to be held in the east gymnasium of the main building on Thursday evening from 4 o'clock until 6. The entire student body is invited to attend.

Princeton

Priherton High School defeated Ridgeway High School 14-0 Friday, September 18 in the first football game of the season. The game was played at Princeton.

Both teams showed good possibilities considering the fact that this was the first game for both teams. A return game will probably be played at Ridgeway this season.

Mary Ruth Curfman To Head Kappa Phis

Kappa Omicron Phi held its first meeting of the fall quarter Wednesday, September 10.

The following officers were elected: president, Mary Ruth Curfman; first vice-president, Julia Hankins; second vice-president, Alice Vanzant; treasurer, Dorothy Dow; secretary, Ruth Miller; corresponding secretary, Maymo Grooms; guard, Wilma Robbins; keeper of archives, Mary Tolin.

The Distaff, which was published here last year, is now being published at Warrensburg.

College Bells Hogs for $813.

The College sold twenty-five pure bred Poland China hogs which averaged 237 pounds at a little less than seven months. The twenty-five head brought $813.

Evelyn Raines, Lucile Sturm, Lorena Bruckner, and Willetta Todd drove to Rock Port September 18. Mable Raines accompanied them home and spent the week-end in Maryville.

Decorated Slickers—New Fad

Decorated slickers are the latest fad on the Missouri University Campus. Tiger heads, "shick" heads, campus scenes, slogans, names and a host of other things are stencilled upon the rain coats.

This fad is beginning here as several similarly decorated slickers are on our campus and probably will become more prevalent before long.

Jessamine Williams, King City, is teaching Commerce in Clinton high school this year.

Every Phase of College Work is Well Under Way

All Departments Have Completed Quarter's Organization Work and Have Started Work In Earnest—Many Classes Show Increase—New Books Ordered.

The beginning of the fourth week of the fall term finds every department of the College well organized in its work. Practically every department has larger classes necessitating division of classes to make for more efficient work. The following department notes have been collected by Courier reporters:

Commerce

The commercial department is enjoying one of the largest regular term enrollments of its existence.

Approximately three hundred students are enrolled in this department. Of this number penmanship leads with one hundred students. Typing is second with seventy-one students. The class in beginning accounting has enrolled sixty students, three times the number enrolled in this course the fall quarter of last year. The remainder of the enrollment is equally divided among the salesmanship, shorthand and administration classes.

This increase is due in part to the addition of new special courses and in part to the growing demand of the business world for commercially trained people.

During the summer quarter the commercial teachers who were in school held a meeting and effected a temporary organization to provide for a commercial section at the district meeting of the State Teachers Association. This is a new venture and the people who are leading the movement are very much in hopes that it will meet with approval and support of all the commercial teachers of the district. Social Science Club To Offer $50 Cash Prizes

Prizes totalling fifty dollars will be offered by the Social Science Club of the College during the coming year for the best research work done in the social science field.

This was announced last Thursday at the first meeting of the club for the year. A nominating committee composed of Kathryn Keplar, Floyd Harvey, Mrs. C. E. Rising and Guy Canaday, was chosen and will report at the next meeting. All students, who have five or more hours college credit in the social science field, are eligible to membership in the Club. Last year this Club excelled all others in the College in scholastic standing.

Mr. Foster, in talking to the Club at this meeting, showed the importance of the social sciences and of social relationships in the world.

S.T.C.'s Educational Ancestor Victim of Campus Progress

Just the skeleton of Maryville's "Old Ironsides" remains on the hill, standing in bold relief against the sky.

It was put there in 1891 by a group of far-seeing men who were ambitious that Maryville should be an educational center. The Maryville citizens of the late 80's labored zealously and the Maryville Seminary was the result.

On July 7, 1887, articles of incorporation were filed for the "Northwest Missouri Educational and Scientific Association," with fifteen business men named as incorporators. This organization later became known as the Maryville Seminary. It was announced on September 5, 1889, that an academic grade would be opened on October 1, and that a faculty would be elected. The first Seminary faculty was comprised of the Reverend Oliver H. Smith, president; Miss Edith Smith, Miss Emma Campbell, Miss Mattie D. Ennis; Professor J. C. Ewing, Professor A. L. Ban Buskirk, Mrs. J. C. Ewing, Judge Cyrus A. Anthony, lecturer, and Dr. Joseph B. Morrison, lecturer. Certain store rooms located on the east side of Market street were secured as temporary class rooms.

Bearcats Toil To Prepare For 1st Game Friday

Squad Begins to Round Into Shape for First Game With Highland—Candidates Scrap for Positions On Varsity Eleven With No Berths Certain.

With only four more days to go until the Bearcats officially open their football season with a game at Highland, Kansas, the gridiron is the scene of much fighting, hustling, and hard scrimmaging as the Bearcats struggle, exerting all, to gain a coveted position on the team. To be one of those eleven men who will march out on the field at Highland to uphold the honor of S. T. C., next Friday, is the desire which is putting fight into every Bearcat.

In their third week of practice with the team Coaches Lawrence and Jones are able to obtain a fairly accurate line on what can be expected. In the backfield the letter men are: Willoughby, Eads, Masters, and Hamilton; quarterback, halfbacks, and fullback, respectively. In addition they have Wilson, H. England, Chick, Vanderslice, Miller, and Reith for halfbacks; for quarter, Search, an Illinois recruit, Joy, a sub from last year's team, Hollar from Hardin, and Eads and Miller from the backfield. At the tackle positions, Captain England, Moentmann, and Hartman, letter men, with the addition of Lewis, the 220 pound boy from Trenton, are furnishing their part of the excitement. For guards Fouts and Stone, letter men, Cox, a sub from last season, Westfall from the local high school, Mullenax from Coffey, and Hilsabeck of Maryville are making up the list of new material. For center, Graham and Stitt are likely candidates. With the large number of letter men back, plus the exceptionally large number of recruits, all indications point to a fighting and undoubtedly a winning team.

Coaches Lawrence and Jones are fairly well pleased with the prospects and will be able to place on the field a well-balanced eleven built around the squad of veterans, there being enough new material from Northwest Missouri to fill the gaps left by departing players. With competition keen their big problem will be in deciding who the eleven men are that are best fitted to represent S. T. C. and uphold the Bearcat reputation at Highland next Friday.

Committee Places 160 Teachers In One Year

The Recommendation Committee has placed 160 students in teaching positions this year.

Requests for teachers came from 110 schools. The 16 calls from outside the state were from Iowa, Montana, Colorado, Michigan, Indiana, Nevada, Kansas, Florida, Arkansas, North Dakota, South Dakota and Nebraska.

The committee wrote 690 letters concerning the placement of teachers, exclusive of agencies. Since the establishment of the committee, it has had 1166 teachers enrolled for placement.

ASSEMBLY SEATING

The seating arrangement at chapel will be the same as last year, acting President Rising of the Student Council stated at the last assembly. Under this plan the seniors will occupy the front rows of the center section, the juniors the seats just behind them in the same section, and the sophomores the rows behind the juniors. The freshmen will be seated on the east side of the auditorium and the faculty, high school and special students will be seated on the west side of the auditorium.

COLLEGE OATH
"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will transmit this College to sacred things of the College. We will reverence and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

Lend Your Encouragement
The following is a communication sent to the Courier "Open Forum" column but we believe it worthy of space in the editorial column:

"The Bearcat football squad promises more to S. T. C. football fans this year than it ever has in the history of the school. Did you know that? Do you know who the likely candidates for the tackle position are? Do you have your opinion of who will fill the vacancies of Young and Ogden at the ends? Who will play that important pivot position, who will call signals for the team? Have you asked yourself these questions and others similar to them?"

"If you have then you have been one of those few interested and loyal supporters that can be found in the bleachers every night, watching the efforts of the perspiring, puffing Bearcats as they vie with one another for those coveted positions."

"If you have then you are one of those few interested and loyal supporters that sends a tingle of encouragement or pep up the spine of the Bearcat as he glances over the bleachers and sees a few that are interested in what he is doing. You are the one that makes him grit his teeth and make another attempt when the whole world seems against him and he is ready to give up in despair. You are the one that will furnish that needed punch to place the oval behind the goal line of Kirkville, eliminating them from the position of an equal contender for the championship as they established last year. I know you are that one, for S. T. C. has no other within her ranks and I shall see you in the bleachers tomorrow night to give your share of encouragement."

One Interested.

Have You An Office?

In looking over the first fall issue of the Courier one would be led to believe that election of officers was the main happening the first two weeks of school. In fact this was one of the biggest events, as there were eight organizations listed in the Courier, electing a total of fifty-nine officers beside a host of committee-men appointed. It is very interesting to note the large number of people elected to offices in such a short time at the beginning of school, and that only about one-third of the College organizations are listed in this count.

Miss Teagarden Tells Of Her Trip To Syria
Miss Teagarden, instructor in home economics at the College last year, who has taken a similar position in an allied American school for girls in Beirut, Syria, has written the following interesting letter of her trip, to Miss Hudson:

"By the time you get this, things will be in full swing at the College again. We are landing at Horta; the Azores, tomorrow, and this letter will be brought back by the 'Roma' and mailed in New York. We are going to take an auto trip tomorrow around Horta (see atlas.)"

"This is the most thrilling and at the same time the most restful thing I've done. I can't think of any time when I ever actually rested as I am doing now—no responsibility, fresh air, lots of food and appetite, lots of sleep, and sleep, very interesting people, reading, writing, deck games, afternoon tea, glorious sunsets, full moon, perfect weather, calm sea."

"We shall stop in Lisbon, Marseille, and Alexandria. We shall be in Marseille for three days, and we expect to make the most of our sight-seeing opportunities.

"We have to set our watches up half an hour every night and it makes bedtime come too soon. There are eight hours difference in time between Beirut and New York—nine between Beirut and Maryville. We expect to get to Beirut on September 21."

The following article is taken from the Chicago Daily Tribune and should be of interest to many of our readers when we remember that Miss Teagarden, who was one of our faculty members last year is teaching in the American University at Beirut, Syria.
"His royal highness, Emir Gherazi, the 12 year old crown prince of Iraq, is coming here to enter the American university accompanied by his nurse and his business manager."

"President Bayard Dodge of the university has received a cable from King Feisal of Iraq asking that appropriate quarters be reserved for the prince and his companions.
"Emir Gherazi will cross the Mesopotamian desert from Bagdad in an automobile, arriving here about October 5."

Y.M.C.A. Plans To Have a Gospel Team

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday morning, "The Little Brown Church in the Vale," was the opening number on the program.

The 18th Chapter of Matthew, verses 8-21, was used in the devotional by Clifford Evans. This was followed by singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Floyd Harvey told some of the plans that the association hopes to accomplish. A gospel team was organized last year and it is planned to organize one this year as several dates have already been planned. The speaker issued a call for all those who play a musical instrument to join in the organization of a Y. M. C. A. orchestra. This orchestra will probably go with the gospel team.
"Come Thou Almighty King," was the closing song.

Y. W. C. A.

"The Bible, the World's Greatest Textbook," was the subject of the talk made by the Reverend Joseph A. Cooper to the Y. W. C. A. last week.

"The Bible," he said, "is not a textbook of science, not of biology, not primarily of history, but of religion."

"We should have a knowledge of the Bible as a whole. Though it is made up of individual books, there is a great, golden thread running through it. It is the record in which God tells men what sort of beings they are and what sort of creatures he wants them to be."

He concluded by saying—"The student who really appreciates the opportunities of college life will take advantage of such an organization as the Y. W. C. A. with its opportunity for Bible study and every student should study this great textbook along with the other textbooks."

was held. Six thousand dollars was pledged and propositions for donations of sales of land for a site for the school were entertained. Eight propositions were received and the one accepted was made by Theodore L. Robinson. His tract was of nearly ten acres with the price of $1,300.00 which, with a subscription by citizens covering that amount, rendered the site practically a donation.

The Seminary Board consisted of fifteen members with the following officers: President, The Reverend E. B. Lytle; vice-president, John W. Airy; secretary D. R. Eversole; treasurer, Joseph Jackson, Sr.

They awarded the contract of the Seminary building to John Nichols. C. N. Cleland, and J. S. Hoffman—the total bids of these men amounting to $19,075. The building was completed in 1891.

Prominent instructors at the Seminary during its existence were Miss Cora Dann, Miss Cora E. Dill, John H. Walker, and Miss Laura Hawkins.

Professor O. H. Smith was the first president of the institution. Others were George E. Moore, C. O. Merlen, the Reverend C. O. Miller, and C. F. Emyart, who was the last president. The Seminary was under the management of the Maryville First Methodist Episcopal Church and the teachers were employed by the board of trustees but the school was kept non-sectarian. June 8, 1905 saw the last commencement men of the Maryville Seminary when the Reverend E. B. Lytle, president of the Board of Trustees presented diplomas to the following graduates:

A. Burman Wells, Charles A. Birkholz, Esther Hanna, Nello Bracken, Ethel Wray, H. O. Loutzenhiser, James D. McNeal, L. J. Kirch, J. L. Jones, Adelia Lower, Bess E. Walker, E. A. Johnson, and Paul E. Gray.

The old Maryville Seminary that had served as an only preparatory school for Maryville youths for fourteen years now became a part of the Northwest State Teachers College. Perhaps one of the reasons the state officials considered Maryville as the seat of the present college was the fact that the Seminary was offered as a donation to the state, which had its valuation for school purposes placed at $30,000. It was used for a school building until 1910.

And now, the old Seminary building, windowless and deserted, whose only service to the community the last few years has been to serve as a land mark, is being dismantled. The brick, lumber, and all the available material that might possibly be of use are being hauled near the power plant on the campus of the Northwest State Teachers College to be used for construction purposes at the college—according to the president of the board of regents, W. F. Phares.

A fitting episode to the interesting history of the old building was the unearthing of a little tin box from the corner stone by workmen who were razing the building.

This little box contained several interesting things, among which was an "Historical Memoranda of the Maryville Seminary" by an unknown writer. The dominating and concluding thought in the article stressed the futility of waiting until "some philanthropist" should come along and bequeath a large sum of money for the establishment of an educational institution here—and leaving this thought to posterity that the citizens of Maryville had acted wisely in straining all their resources to be finally rewarded by seeing the Maryville Seminary an actuality.

Other contents of the box consisted of a Bible of the 1855 edition, King James version; several newspapers in existence at that time; some official papers; various catalogs of the Seminary, giving the officers of the school, the teachers, and the courses offered; a program of the corner stone laying which took place July 22, 1890 stating that Frank Shoemaker was the marshal of the day and addresses were made by Judge O. A. Anthony and Dr. J. J. Bentley of Savannah.

Because of its historical value and the fact that the Seminary was given to the state, this apparently inauspicious little tin box has been turned over to Uel W. Lamkin, the president of our institution, to be kept and treasured in the archives of the state institution located here.

DECORATED SLICKERS ARE LATEST CO-ED FAD

Columbia, Mo., Sept. 24—Artistically decorated "slickers" are the latest fad among the students at the University. The never ending search of the co-ed for something different has resulted in stencilling "tiger" heads, "shiek" heads, campus scenes, slogans, names—the list is practically endless—upon the rain coats.

Ellis Meek is decorating raincoats for the S. T. C. students. Pictures, monograms, slogans, and names can be painted upon the coat in a variety of colors. Signs, show cards and posters—a specialty. Office over Raines & Chavis. —Advertisement.

The reception given by the faculty to the students in the College Library Friday night turned out to be a grand old reunion of three prominent families, the Uralenon family, the Dumbell family and the Big Nut family.

Everyone came even Grandpa, Grandma, Uncle Walt and all the kiddies. The three families had several friendly contests to see which one had the prettiest daughter, the darlingest baby, the "fightingest" dog, and the most "similar" twins.

After taking their family portraits they went into the auditorium where they forgot family feuds in listening to a group of songs by Mr. Bronson and several violin numbers by Miss Dvorak.

Punch was served from three tables. Maude Kibbe, Katherine Kibbe and Lawrence Wray furnished music throughout the evening.

S. T. C. High School Entertains

The high school seniors of the College entertained Wednesday night from eight to ten in the girls' gym in honor of the freshmen class. The gym was decorated for the occasion and music was furnished by the high school orchestra. Other features of the evening's entertainment were games and an initiation for the freshmen. Refreshments of cider, gingersnaps, and pop corn were served. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Cook and Misses Katherine and Margaret Franken.

Faculty On A. A. U. W. Program

Miss James and Mrs. J. R. Wallin were assisting hostesses at the first fall meeting of the A. A. U. W. meeting held at the home of Mrs. Forrest Gilliam Tuesday night. Miss Dykes, Dean Barnard, and Miss De Luce were named alternates for delegates to state convention at Springfield October 9-10. Miss Smith, president, gave a talk on the "Present and Future of the Local Branch of A. A. U. W." Miss Dvorak, of the College Conservatory faculty, gave a group of violin selections. Additional program features included a talk by Miss De Luce on "Our Page in the Founders Book," and a talk by Mrs. M. E. Ford, formerly of the college faculty on "What the A. A. U. W. Means to Me." About twenty-five members were present.

Newman Club Party

Thursday, September 24, a social gathering of the members of Newman Club was held at the Hall. The evening was spent in dancing, and punch was served during the course of the evening. The orchestra, consisting of Mary Brough, Cleo Yello, Theodore Breedlove, Carol Reimer, Beatrice Hanson, and Bernard Conway, furnished the music for the dancers. A number of guests were present and everyone had a good time.

Senior Class Meeting

David Max was elected representative to the Student Council for a term of one year by the senior class at its meeting last Friday. Eugene Dixon was chosen to fill the vacancy made by the election of Ray Blomfield to the presidency of the council. "Abie" was already on the council as a senior class representative. Eugene Dixon's term will expire at the end of the fall quarter.

The class chose the school colors, green and white, as its class colors and the school motto—"And the truth shall make you free"—as its motto.

About forty-five seniors were present.

Tea for Miss Mather

Miss Mather was the guest of honor at an informal tea given Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock by the Misses Stowell. The guests included the women of the College faculty and the wives of faculty members. Grace Graves presided at the tea table and Myrtle Hankins, Julia Hankins, Lucille Best and Louise Freeman assisted in serving. The tea was in the living room at Residence Hall which was decorated with asters and other autumn flowers.

Picnic at Perrin Hall

A group of young people gathered at Perrin Hall, Monday, September 21, to enjoy an indoor picnic. The occasion was to help Vera McLeod and Wayne Sauceman to celebrate their birthdays.

The following were present: Kathryn Chandler, Marie Chandler, Nellie Castle, Mayme Grems, Marguerite Dowling, Lettie Wagonblast, Morris Chick, Joe Phipps, Donald Herndon, Eugene Busby, Donald Barley, Mervin McNulty, and the host and hostess.

President and Mrs. Lamkin were at home to the College Faculty, Thursday evening. The guests were received in the drawing room by President and Mrs. Lamkin. Dean and Mrs. Colbert, Mr. and Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Phares, and the new members of the faculty were in the receiving line.

Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Phares, Mrs. Rich, Mrs. Deane, and Mrs. Barnard served in the dining room. Miss Hudson and Miss Stowell directed the guests to the dining room. College girls who assisted with the serving were Marie Chandler, Evelyn Raines, Clea McCoy, Roberta Cook and Julia Hankins. Betty Selesman received at the door.

The house was attractively decorated with garden flowers and the dining room table held a charming centerpiece of pink roses.

Philo Gives Program

The Philo meeting Thursday, September 17, was a very interesting one. David Nicholson gave the welcoming address. Myrtle Hankins imitated a typical Italian in presenting a musical reading. Following this, Guy Canaday talked to the society about the 1926 calendar. The program was concluded with group singing led by Elizabeth Mills.

Wilson Craig was elected president of the Philomathean Literary Society at its first meeting last Thursday. The other officers elected were: vice-president, Guy Canaday; secretary, Faye Townsend; treasurer, John Mountjoy; sergeant-at-arms, David Nicholson; and pianist, Clytie Hackett.

Stone Heads College Class

Dr. Keller's class of the Christian Church elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Paul Stone of Bethany; vice-president, Willetta Todd of Trenton; secretary, Eugene Allison of Gower; and treasurer, Floyd Moore of Maryville.

The enrollment for the first Sunday was 120 which is the largest enrollment for the fall quarter in the history of the class.

The last meeting of the Newman Club was made most interesting by a talk on "Newman Clubs in the East" by Miss Katherine Franken. The time not occupied by the program was given over to a discussion of social affairs by the various committees and to the election of a sergeant-at-arms. Lawrence Sherlock was elected.

A musicale to be given at Newman Hall is being planned for the near future. Through the generosity of Mr. Gardner, this is to be given and various members of the music department will participate. It is open to all and tickets will be on sale soon.

No Gym Equipment Yet

The general equipment and furnishing for the new gym has not arrived to date although it has been ordered for some time. Classes are being conducted in the best manner possible without this equipment. Though students as well as the instructors are expressing their desires for this accommodation, they are patiently waiting for its arrival and installation.

Laura Margaret Raines, a former student of S. T. C. who entered the University of Nebraska, at Lincoln, has been pledged to the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Mary Irwin, B. S. '24, major in home economics has recently been appointed head dietitian of the New Methodist Hospital in St. Joseph.

Junior Orchestra Meets

The junior orchestra met for the first time Thursday 7:30 p. m. at the Conservatory. A large number reported for practice. The orchestra is composed of students from the grade school, high school, and college. The members of college rank are taking up the study of new instruments. Miss Dvorak is the director.

Laura Belle Nicholas has taken a position in the public schools of Knoxville, Tennessee. She will teach the fourth grade. She left Thursday night to take over her new work.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pierpont will spend the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. DuBois at Grant City, Mo.

Carr To Represent Juniors

Doy Carr was elected Student Council representative from the junior class at its meeting last Friday. Miss Terhune was chosen by the class to act as its social sponsor.

48 "Mules" Out This Year to Make Grid 11

"The prospects for a winning team at the 'Mule' camp has never been so pleasing as it is this year." That is the statement made by Coach Reid.

Up to the present time forty-eight men are working out daily under the close and able supervision of coaches Reid and Williams. There is a probability of a few more late ones checking out suits yet.

Among the forty-eight men out this year, there are ten letter men, nine old squad men from last year who did not earn their letters and twenty-eight new men.

The letter men to don the suits again this year are: Capt. Whitman; Brown, Ralph, Dick, Walbridge, Johnson, L. White, Soph, Graph, McKeehan and Kirkpatrick.

The old squad men are: Reid, V., Oull, Adams, Rice, Johnson, K., Summers, Long, Angell, Whitmer—Warrensburg student.

Warrensburg Has 860 Enrolled This Quarter

The fall term of the College opened September 15th with the usual process of enrolling. Since the first day the number has rapidly increased until at present there are 860 students exclusive of the Training School.

New faces are seen on the campus and judging by green caps and stockings the freshman class will be a large one.

Dean Parker says it is the largest enrollment for the fall term in the history of the college.

The total number of students for the fall quarter last year was 789 (not including Training School) which gives this year an increase already of 71.

Several of the classes have been divided because of the large number of students.

Lessons were assigned Wednesday and classes began Thursday. Changes in course were formally made Friday. Other students are still expected for late enrollment.—Warrensburg Student.

Albert Wilson, B. S. '25, who is teaching at Carthage, Mo., sent a check to the Courier this week for his paper.

Martha Yarbrough and Fern Bennum spent Thursday, September 20, in Kansas City. While there they saw Mildred Galbreath, a student of S. T. C. during the summer quarter 1925.

E. C. Lindley has entered the School of Medicine, Washington University, St. Louis.

Lula Gromer, who received her Life Certificate, May 27, 1925, is teaching at Stanberry.

Miss Lois K. Halley returned to Columbus, Mississippi, Saturday night, September 12, to resume her duties as a member of the Faculty in the State College for Women.

Ray Hull, a former student here and also at the University, is now advertising manager of the Trenton Times. Mr. Hull formerly held a similar position on the Chillicothe Tribune.

Mr. Kinnaird and Mary Ruth Curfman went to Hopkins last week where they acted as judges in the exhibits at the Hopkins picnic. Mr. Kinnaird judged the agricultural exhibits and Miss Curfman judged the home economics exhibits.

Warren Breit, B. S. '18 has resigned his position as head of the business administration department of the Saginaw State Normal to enter business at Houston.

Dr. Keller preached at both the morning and evening services at the First Christian Church here on Sunday, Sept. 13. The Rev. R. E. Snodgrass has resigned and the church has not selected his successor yet.

Clelle T. LeHew, B. S. '24, is principal of the high school at Chula this year.

Lucile Airy, B. S. '25, is teaching commerce this year in the South Side High School at Omaha, Neb. She visited Maryville over the week-end to attend the dedication exercises at the First Methodist Church.

Eula Mae Pearce, B. S., A. B. '24, has taken the position this year as dean of women at Hedding College, Abington, Ill. Miss Pearce took her Master's degree from the University of Missouri this spring.

Dean Barnard entertained a group of sophomore women who are new to the College this quarter at an informal tea, Friday afternoon, September 11, in the recreation room.

Edith Coler, a former student, is teaching social science in Boreasford, South Dakota.

Florence Puckett is beginning her second year teaching commerce in Clarinda, Iowa, High School. Miss Puckett spent part of the summer in Chicago, attending the Gregg School.

Margaret Sells spent the week-end September 11-13 at her home in Savannah.

Lillie R. Nelson sent in her alumni dues and subscription to the Green and White. Miss Nelson spent the summer in Colorado. She is now in Kansas City.

The Old Maid Teacher Again Becomes Popular

HYANNIS, Mass.—Homely old maids, not flappers, are wanted by Paul Dillingham, Superintendent of the Falmouth School district.

No bobbed-haired beauties, or others carrying the brightly lined of flappers, are wanted as teachers in Dillingham's district.

The superintendent, who came here to attend the summer conference of school superintendents, was not backward in telling his associates that the little flappers, as a school teacher, is an utter failure, and that the homely, bespectacled old maid, who scorns rolled stockings and cigarettes, is much more efficient.

"Several years ago I was urged to secure younger and better-looking teachers for the Falmouth district schools," Dillingham said. "I did. But I regret it. The trouble is, the young graduate of normal school does not know how to restrain herself. If she is good looking she is pestered with the attentions of admirers to the detriment of her work. The flapper's extreme petting in dress, her cigarette and her stiletty parties cannot but compromise her discipline.

"The flapper teacher is a definite problem in our school system. 'The normal school might correct the tendency of the high school graduate during her teacher training, but it does not.

"It is not that I minimize the benefit to children in an interesting teacher. I will agree that the good-looking teacher has an asset in her very appearance that is of major importance. Yet the older teacher may offset what she lacks in looks by good personality. Personality is better than looks. Handsome is as handsome does.

"The boy or girl in our high school cannot but learn that the teacher has been out at unconventional hours, at unconventional places and has acted in an unconventional manner."

Students Think Teapot Dome Is Some Building

New York—"Ma," Ferguson, governor of Texas, is identified in the minds of some American school students as president of Mexico and also as Babe Ruth. Teapot Dome is thought by other students to be a building in Washington. And still others confuse Mussolini with "Battling Siki," Al Jolson, and "Billy" Sunday.

These were among the surprising answers given by American high school, college, and university students in the annual tests on current history conducted by the Review of Reviews magazine, the results of which were made public today. The survey was based on examination papers of 1,630 students scattered throughout the country.

Many Don't Recognize Coolidge. It was found that no particular section of the country stood out markedly above the average in knowledge of current affairs. Eleven per cent of the students failed to recognize the photograph of President Coolidge. Only 42 per cent knew the name of the inventor of wireless telegraphy. Only one of four could identify a reaper and a tractor—even when they were given a setting of a grain field.

Some students placed Muscle Shoals in Italy, others put it in the Pacific ocean. One youth was convinced that the United States had purchased Japan.

Anyway, Funnies Are Popular

"The question may well be raised," the report said, whether we are supplementing the head line, the picture newspaper, the picture supplement, and movie news with serious study in the classroom to an adequate degree.

"Too frequently the question 'Do you enjoy reading the newspapers and magazines?' was answered frankly, 'Yes—the funny part.'"

Rural, urban, and metropolitan communities were covered by the report. The average grade of the 1,630 test papers was 43 per cent, although many schools which made low percentages did not forward their papers. One senior high school returned papers only 14 per cent correct.

Hazel Hant is doing substitute teaching in the first and second grades at Great Falls, Montana.

Miss Teagarden sailed from New York August 28 on the Fabre Steamship Line. She will reach Beirut, Syria between the 21 and 27 of September. She has been stopping and sightseeing along the Atlantic and Mediterranean coasts.

IF EDUCATED, ANSWER "YES"

Has your education given you sympathy with all good causes and made you espouse them? Has it made you public spirited?

Has it made you a brother to the weak?

Have you learned how to make friends and keep them?

Can you look an honest man and a pure woman in the eye?

Do you see anything to love in a little child?

Will a poor, lone dog follow you in the street?

Can you be high-minded in the midst of drudgeries?

Do you think washing dishes and boiling corn just as compatible with high thinking as piano playing or playing golf?

Are you good for anything yourself?

Can you be happy alone?

Can you look out in the world and see anything except dollars and cents?—The Lookout.

Kirksville Bulldogs Have 55 Candidates

Northeast Teachers Believe Maryville Is Out for Revenge This Year, Says Index—Squad Looks Good and They Anticipate Good Season.

Maryville and Warrensburg report the best chances for a winning team in years. Maryville is seeking revenge for the defeat of last year.

The warm weather of last week aided in the slowing down of the men much to some of the boys' delight.

Coach McWilliams has that severe look that is so outstanding during football season.

The first call for practice of the Bulldogs brought out fifty-five candidates for the team. Many of the promising athletes of Northeast Missouri are in this squad. Among these fifty-five men there are eleven letter men who are out to defend their positions on the team. The chances for a winning aggregation look very good and Coach H. L. McWilliams seems very enthusiastic over the outlook.

Last year's letter men who reported were: Captain Barker, Holman, Stroup, Chevalier, Ranson and Streeter. McKanna of the 1923 team is out for a backfield position. After two years of absence Thomas, Williamson and Reed are back again. Another letter man from 1918 team who answers to the name of Jones is out for the team.

Among the promising men who have played on previous Bulldog squads are: Ellis, Bradley, Willis, Simmons, Garrett, Rouse, and Ford. Parsons, Palmer, Coffey, and others who are new to the squad are all showing up well. Several men from K. H. S. are ambitious to make the team. Still other men from various high schools are out. Adams and Duerfing from Missouri Military Academy are out for the team. Next week we will be able to give the personnel of the squad.

Generally speaking, the squad looks good. The hot weather has kept them from doing much hard work. Many of the men are beginning to get in fair condition, especially those who had been working out some before. A training table is to be started and many of the men will eat there to help get themselves into the best of condition for the first game. We are hoping for a great season and the Bulldogs have started their part of it.

The A B C of Love

HE

In the gloaming, oh my darling,
When the lights are dim and low,
That your face is powder painted
How am I, sweetheart, to know?
Twice this month I've had to bundle
Every coat that I possess
To the cleaners—won't you, darling,
Love me more and powder less?

SHE

In the gloaming, oh my darling,
When the lights are dim and low,
That your cheeks are sharp with whiskers
You can bet your boots I know.
If I powder, I must do it
Or else suffer great distress;
Buy a razor, won't you, darling?
Lather more—I'll powder less.

POISON IVY

Of course every alumnus of the College will be interested in keeping in touch with his Alma Mater. The best way to do this is to join the Alumni Association. One dollar pays the enrollment fee and entitles the member to a subscription to the Green and White Courier for this year. Send in your dollar, your name and your address to: Mabel Cook, treasurer, 549 West First street, Maryville or to Mattie M. Dykes, president, 222 West Second street, Maryville.

Miss Hankins to Columbia. Lois Hankins, B. S. '22 has enrolled in Columbia University this fall to work for her Master's Degree in kindergarten methods.

She made the trip to New York in a car, stopping at all the places of interest en route.

Mrs. Louise B. Hastings, formerly house mother of Residence Hall, is now social director at Helen Newberry Residence, one of the three women's dormitories on the campus at the University of Michigan.

The Stroller

By ? ? ? ?

Hello, folks! Here the Stroller is again! Really, he hadn't meant to return at all this year until he heard what happened to Joe.

Of course you know Joe. He's the fellow who used to drive the College mules. But he doesn't any more! No, Street He now drives a Dodge sedan, which the College owns, and that is the reason the Stroller, like the proverbial cat, came back: If Joe was lucky enough to be advanced from the mule-driving stage to the Dodge sedan stage without even passing through the flivver stage, the Stroller ought to go from "colymist" to editor at a jump one of these days.

But there's Joe! Wouldn't it be fine if he could have a uniform? Think of the dignity it would add to the business of conducting the faculty about on extension trips! Green broadcloth, white buttons, leather puttees, perhaps, and a cap with a bill! Can't you see Joe touching his cap politely, as he opens the door of the sedan to allow one of the dignitaries to alight?

Don't you really think Joe ought to have a uniform?

Now the Stroller would be only too glad to provide it, but he is not very flush on cash since vacation time. You see, the Stroller's girl was home too and it did take dozens of ice-cream sodas to keep her interested. The Stroller, being richer in ideas than in cash, suggests a plan, however. Why can't the various public spirited organizations take up the matter? The "M" Club might give him the broadcloth. The Kappa Phi surely would make it up. If every senior bought a white button and contributed it, the suit would be decorated; and the faculty men might be persuaded to sew the buttons on if the ladies would agree to make the button-holes.

It wouldn't take long to fit Joe out properly in a uniform. Then, those who had failed to help provide the uniform could start a cleaner's bill fund to help out in case Joe had to get out in the mud to change a tire.

When he went in to enroll the Stroller heard Mr. Rickenbrode asking a Freshman girl if a check book which had been found was her's. He told her it contained one check which was not filled in, but which she had signed. The girl said, "Oh, that's all right, it's just an old check," and walked out without the book.

Still dazed by this the Stroller went through the door to Office 203 where he heard Mr. Phillips humming, "Just Before the Battle, Mother," while he was waiting for an interview with President Lamkin.

The Stroller has been so busy seeing his old friends that he hasn't picked up much news. He went out to the English Department and found out that all its members had been buying book-cases instead of Essex Conches this fall. Miss Painter has donated her's to the English Office for the time being and it is doing service there for an ornament, flower stand, and inspiration as well as holder for books.

The English Department wasn't a very safe place to be because somebody had just proposed to them that a faculty swimming class be organized. The Stroller didn't understand just why the idea met with such disapproval, but he knew from past experience that then was a good time to leave.

The mention of swimming gave him an idea so he went down to the new gymnasium. He came in just as Thelma Hodgkin dived off into the nine-foot water for the first time. Thelma came up all right and got into a floating position all right and then she cried out, "Where am I?" The Stroller has been wondering just where she thought she was.

Of course, the Stroller had to go out and watch the Beaurets practice awhile. When he was talking to "Red" Best he found out that Joe Vanderslice is doing exceptionally well, having been over here from the old country only two years and now a freshman in college. Ask any member of the football squad, they will tell you about it.

High School Notes

Ridgeway

The Ridgeway football eleven has a halfback who weighs just ninety-six pounds, according to Lon Wilson, coach. Ridgeway played its first game September 18, and lost to Princeton, 14 to 0.

Rock Port

The Journalism Club of Rock Port High School has reorganized this year with Miss Mabel Raines as faculty advisor and will again publish the school paper, the "Blue and White Pop." They intend to act as correspondent here for the "Green and White Courier." The club has elected the following officers: Editor-in-chief, Mudge Pettit; secretary-treasurer, Donald Schmidt; sports editor; organization editor, Helen Deuser; grade news editor, Betty Pettit; miscellaneous editor, Alex Frazier.

It may be of interest to the readers of the Green and White Courier to know that most of the teachers in the Rock Port Schools have formerly attended Northwest Missouri S. T. O. They are as follows: Superintendent H. W. Leech, Miss Mabel Raines, Mrs. Newlon, Miss Reed Smock, Miss Helen Patterson, Miss Georgia Bird, Miss Claudia Juck, Miss Helen Nail, Miss Grace Updike, Miss Lola McNeal, and Mrs. L. E. Linville.

Hamilton

Hamilton High School opened August 31 with an unusually large enrollment. The total number of students is 146, classified as follows: freshman 51, sophomore 25, junior 35 and senior 35.

The members of the faculty are: Superintendent, Charles Meyers, algebra; principal, Nellie Crockett, Latin and history; Vivian Sent, English; T. D. McClure, agriculture, civics; J. R. Stafford, science, physical education; and Mrs. Grace Wampler, home economics.

Maitland

The high school of Maitland, which opened August 31, has an enrollment of sixty-six students this fall. The faculty this year consists of U. L. Riley, superintendent; Paul Chappell, principal; and the following teachers: Mrs. Paul Chappell, Miss Leta Babb, and C. B. King. Everything is now going forward according to a permanent schedule. Mrs. Chappell has a total of fifteen members in her home economics classes. About forty students are enrolled in the orchestra comprised of advanced players, and a junior orchestra comprised of beginners. Both of these are under the direction of Miss Leta Babb. Two physical education classes are being conducted regularly by Mr. King, athletic director.

Great interest is being shown in athletics. The boys are practicing regularly and a playing schedule has already been arranged. The first game of the season is on Friday, September 25th, when Maitland meets Consolidated District No. 1 on the latter's court.

Class organizations were also completed last week. Ernest Rowlett was chosen president of the senior class with Ralph Dysart as vice-president. Helen Imboden is the secretary and treasurer. The junior class elected the following officers: President, Bruce Johnston; vice-president, Robert Edwards and secretary-treasurer, Ella Fries. Sophomore officers are: President, Lorene Warner; vice-president, Martha Wyman; secretary, Emerald Riley; and treasurer, Mildred Coywood. In the Freshman class the following officers were chosen: President, Ethel Crider; vice-president, Martha Bird; secretary-treasurer, Roy Fries.

The enrollment this fall consists of thirteen seniors; sixteen juniors; fifteen sophomores, and twenty-two freshmen.

Richmond

The schools of Richmond opened this year with an enrollment of 1117. The total enrollment for the city schools last year was 1184 but Superintendent L. Collier believes that the students late in enrolling will bring the figures up to that of last year. The high school has 265 registered and the junior high school, 188.

Carrollton

On account of the extreme heat Carrollton opened its schools and held only half day sessions, according to the Carrollton Democrat. This schedule was maintained until the mercury came down to points "within reason." The enrollment the first two days showed 252 students in the high school and 781 in both grades and high school.

Breckenridge

Breckenridge is an educational center encouraging the attainment of a higher education and a practical use of that education, says the Breckenridge Bulletin, and proves the fact by saying thirty people from that community will attend institutions of higher learning this fall and more than that number will teach in schools and colleges.

Trenton

Trenton has started off this year with a record enrollment, states the Republican and Tribune. Ten per cent of Trenton's population is enrolled in one of the three educational institutions there, not including the grades. The total enrollment in the junior college, junior and senior high schools is about 850. Junior high has about 400, the senior high about 350, and the Junior College has about 75 so far, a very good number for its opening term.

Chillicothe

The cafeteria of the Chillicothe Junior-Senior high school opened last week and is now serving lunch to all of its students at cost prices. Miss Ora May Condon, B. S. '28, instructor in Home Economics there is assistant manager of the cafeteria.

Maryville

One thousand and four students had enrolled in the Maryville Public Schools during the first three days of registration, Superintendent L. E. Ziegler, announced publicly. Of this number 335 were registered in the high school.

Gallatin

The Gallatin high school has the largest enrollment in its history, a total of 192 with 68 in the freshman class. The North Missourian says there are sixteen more students than there are seats in the study hall.

King City

The second day's enrollment at the King City high school showed a total of 132 with several more students expected to sign up later in the week.

Maysville

The boys and girls are about on an even footing in the Maysville high school for there are sixty-nine girls and seventy-four boys. It is unusual to find more boys than girls enrolled in a high school. The senior class has twenty boys and only seventeen girls.

Partches Write From Harvard

Mr. and Mrs. Partch, according to a letter received by Miss Dykes, are enjoying a two weeks vacation at Crystal Lake near the Gilmonton iron works in the White Mountains of New Hampshire.

Mr. Partch received an offer of fellowship in the University of California to do research work in vocational training and to continue work for his Doctor's degree. However Mr. Partch did not accept this offer, believing that it would be better to remain at Harvard. He is at present acting as assistant instructor to Doctor Brewer and to Doctor Nichols.

The Partches have changed their address to 11 Arlington Street, Cambridge, Mass., and asked that their Courier be sent to them there. Mr. Partch has been granted another year's leave of absence.

PI OMEGA ELECT OFFICERS

Louise Freeman was elected president of the Pi Omega Pi, honorary commerce fraternity at its meeting, September 17. The other officers chosen were: Vice-president, Gordon Roach; secretary, Elsie Brown; treasurer, Cleo Holt; historian, George Newman.

College Work Is Well Under Way

look for a large attendance this year, since the State Meeting is in St. Louis.

Miss James was appointed chairman. A committee composed of Reed Smock, Ina Wachtel, and Lillian James are planning the program, which will perhaps consist of a lecture and a round-table discussion to which each teacher will make a contribution. Miss Opal Stone and Ethel Kaufman are the members of a committee to make the remainder of the arrangements for the section meeting.

One hundred one students have enrolled in the shorthand and typewriting classes this quarter.

Public Speaking.

A course in debate carrying a credit of five semester hours has been arranged to meet at eight o'clock Monday mornings in room 326.

During the year several intercollegiate debates and other contests will be held.

Education

Miss Kathryn Franken of the Education department reports an unusually large enrollment in her classes this quarter, the number nearly equaling the enrollment of the same classes for the summer quarter.

One section of a freshman education class has an enrollment of one hundred and nine students.

Psychology 11 has three divisions one containing seventy-three, another containing sixty-nine, and the other containing forty-five.

The classes are divided into groups, each containing from six to ten. The students are given questions that cover the course and in addition to this a syllabus of the course. Unsettled questions and problems are then taken to class for discussion. Frequent individual and group conferences are held to help those who have difficult problems.

Women's Physical Education

The women's physical education classes are filled to their usual capacity. Every course offered has a splendid enrollment. The course in beginning swimming has proven very popular. Thirty-five girls are enrolled in this course alone.

The advanced students are doing practice teaching in the city public school system. The following students are assigned to this work:

Lucy Allen, Garfield.
Rozella Froman, Jefferson
Mae Shunk, Franklin

Robert Cook, Central
Evelyn Raines, College High School
Dolly Logan, Training School
Glady Hornbuckle, Training School.
This department has extension classes in Trenton and Rock Port.

Foreign Language Department

Never in the history of the school have there been so many students enrolled in the language department.

Mr. Hawkins was unable to grant all requests for Latin courses but he is offering courses in Virgil, Sallust, Catullus, De Senectute, and a review course in Latin.

In the Spanish department there are three sections of beginning Spanish and one section of intermediate Spanish under Miss Terhune.

Miss Dow reports three sections in beginning French, one in intermediate, and an advanced course, 165a, which is the "Age of Pre-Classicism."

The total enrollment in these departments is two hundred.

Home Economics

The number of new girls enrolled in home economics classes this fall with the idea of specializing in that subject is larger than ever before.

There is, also, a larger number of fields opening up for home economics work.

Music

The conservatory has an unusually large enrollment for this year.

In the organization there are three new teachers: Mr. Bronson, voice; Miss Dvorak, violin and Mr. Hickernell who teaches the wood and wind instruments.

The high school music is also done by the teachers of the conservatory. Mr. Bronson has charge of the chorus and glee clubs while Mr. Hickernell has the orchestra.

A new plan of class instruction in music has been inaugurated in the high school and grades. The pupils are met in groups of four or six and are given instruction by Miss Dvorak or Mr. Hickernell at twenty-five cents per lesson.

Mr. Gardner, head of the department, has seven practice teachers in the various grades, ranging from primary to high school.

The organizations of band, orchestra and chorus have been completed. The band and orchestra meet with Mr.

Hickernell, the former on Tuesday evening at 7 p. m. and the latter on Monday evening at the same hour. The junior orchestra meets on Thursday evening with Miss Dvorak and Mr. Gardner meets the chorus at 11 on Thursday and at 1:20 on Monday of each week.

English Department

Miss Dykes is offering a new course this quarter which is open to juniors and seniors. It is contemporary American literature 132 and will include American poetry, essay, novel, short story, with a survey of the field with readings from each. Each student is making a special study of some periodical for a period of about ten years with the idea of finding out which magazines publish the works of people who have become outstanding literary figures. Each student has chosen one of these special fields for special study and will choose one particular man in each field. The class has twelve members.

There are about two hundred freshmen enrolled in the different sections of English 11a this Fall quarter. The English department is very well pleased with the ability of each freshman to speak well and they report the entire group as being interested and well prepared.

Both the freshman and senior high school English classes are large this quarter.
